

The 2019 BioGuard Education Conference (BEC)

How to Calculate Your Funds

1. Log onto myBioGuard.com and click on the “Co-Op” tool
2. Click on “Funds Summary Report” under the “Funds Management Tab” from the top navigation bar

Here you will see a breakdown of all of your funds, including the maximum that you can spend earnings in 2018 for the BEC under column “H” or “Balance Available for BioGuard Conferences” The funds will continue to accumulate throughout the season, increasing your available balance. Your balance will determine how much you can actually apply towards the trip. If your funds will not cover the entire cost, you will be responsible for the balance due. The balance due will be charged to your BioLab account in mid-October and must be paid in full prior to November 30, 2018. You have the option to pay the balance due by credit card or check following the same procedures as you would for BioLab issued invoice. Payment not made prior to November 30 may result in a cancellation of your registration and forfeit of any applied Co-Op funds.

Your Co-Op claim will be filed by BioGuard and will require no action on your part. All Co-Op funds will be applied prior to October 15, 2018. Funds are deducted on a weekly basis and not immediately. Claims that have been submitted to Channel Fusion for processing and clear prior to your funds being deducted will impact the amount available to apply towards the trip.
